

John Wesley

OBITUARY

Mrs. Ellen J. Olds

Ellen J. Olds, wife of J. W. Olds, was born in New Scotland, Albany county, N. Y., July 7, 1839. She with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. La Grange, one sister and three brothers, came west to Davenport, May 6, 1851. She lived near Davenport the greater part of her life until 1919, when she and her husband and one daughter, Genevieve, came to Grinnell to live.

She leaves her husband and three daughters, Mrs. A. R. Nichols, of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. G. H. Brown and Genevieve, of Grinnell, and two granddaughters, Dorothy Fales Brown and Edna Maurine Nichols. The oldest daughter, Mrs. S. A. Murray, was called higher in 1895. She leaves also one sister and two brothers, Mrs. S. J. Preston, of Grinnell; Wm. La Grange, of Canon City, Colo., and Charles La Grange, of Indianapolis, Ind. The oldest brother, James La Grange, of Grand Junction, Colo., died in 1906.

Mrs. Olds had lived in Grinnell but a short time, but by her loving personality had won a host of friends. She was always forgetful of self and spent her useful life in doing for others. Her family can always think of her as a most loving and helpful mother.

Fry Herald Want Ads.