

Maude Opdahl

Maude C. Opdahl, 93, of Dade City, Fla., formerly of Grinnell and Malcom, died Sunday, July 19, at the Geriatric Center in Dade Center.

Graveside services were conducted Wednesday at Story City Cemetery in Story City with the Rev. Rolfe Johnstad officiating. The Soderstrum-Larson Funeral Home of Story City was in charge of arrangements.

R She was born Jan. 3, 1899, in Jefferson County to Gilbert and Dollie Mae Hall Martin. She was married to Ralph Russell, who died in 1935. She then was married to Peter Opdahl Aug. 22, 1935.

Mrs. Opdahl lived in Grinnell and Malcom for many years before moving to Sauk Center, Minn., in the mid-1970s. She had lived in Florida for the past seven years.

Surviving are three sons, Donald Russell of Missouri, Howard Russell of Georgia and Ralph Russell of Corpus Christi, Texas; three daughters, Helen Rippley of Zephyr Hills, Fla., Jean Simon of Cedar Rapids and Betty Slifka of Ridgeway; two stepsons, Ernest Opdahl of Des Moines and Lewis Opdahl of Albert

Lea, Minn.; two sisters, Zelma Hubbard of Grinnell and Merle Harlley of Batavia; 27 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husbands; one son, Chester; one great-grandson; one sister, Nora Lincoln; and two brothers, Carl and Glenn Martin.

Peter

July 23, 1992