

(STEPHEN F)

Karen K. Orsborn

Funeral services were held Monday morning, Dec. 21, at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in Brooklyn, for Mrs. Karen K. Orsborn, 58, of Brooklyn, who died in her home in Brooklyn on Thursday, Dec. 17, 1998.

Carol Wehr, pastor of Malcom-Sheridan United Methodist Church, officiated. The musician was Marilyn Kriegel and special selections were "Just a Closer Walk with Thee" and Amazing Grace." Honorary casket bearer was Darrell Grapp, and casket bearers were Stephen L. Orsborn, Robert Lindsay, John Orsborn, Robert Little, Max Montgomery and Gene Willett. Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

Karen Kay Lindsay Orsborn, daughter of John Lindsay and Mildred Tressler Lindsay, was born Jan. 15, 1940, at Hedrick. Karen was a graduate of Hedrick High School, and attended Parsons College where she received her BA in education and the University of Iowa where she received her masters degree in Library Science.

Following her graduation from the University of Iowa she taught school at Humeston for one year, and then taught at BGM until the early '70s.

Karen was married to Stephen Franklin Orsborn on June 6, 1965, in Hedrick. They made their home in Brooklyn and in recent years she was secretary at the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, where she was a member.

Mrs. Orsborn was preceded in death by her father. Survivors include her husband, Stephen F. Orsborn; one son, Stephen L. Orsborn, and his wife, Lisa; her mother, Mrs. Mildred Lindsay of Brooklyn; and one brother, Robert Lindsay, and his wife, Sherry, of Bettendorf.

BC Dec. 23, 1998