

H-R March 18, 1982

Rites set for Mrs. Osland

W. / b w r

Normalie Osland, 51, of Rte. 3, Grinnell, died of cancer Tuesday morning at Grinnell General Hospital. March 12

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Robert C. Smith, pastor of the Grinnell First Baptist Church, and the Rev. B.L. Howse, pastor of the Community Church of Lewis, Ind., officiating. Organist will be Edward Bohsted.

Pallbearers will be Billy Campbell, Robert Fuerst, George Graham, Vernon Graham, Bradford Jones and Clinton Smith. Honorary bearers will be Charles Brook, John Doud, Donald Hull and Willard Wells.

Burial will be at the Sheridan Cemetery northeast of Grinnell. Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Osland's name may be made to the American Cancer Society or to the Grinnell First Baptist Church.

The daughter of Fred J. and Opal White Deere, she was born May 30, 1930, at Newton. She graduated from Newton High School in 1949 and worked at the Parsons Co. as a secretary.

She was married to Wilbur S. Osland on Sept. 9, 1951, at Newton. The couple later moved to a farm northeast of Grinnell in the Chester community.

Mrs. Osland was active in the Grinnell First Baptist Church and various church boards.

She is survived by her husband, Wilbur; her children, Janyce Johnstone of Rte. 3, Solon, Teresa Osland of Rte. 3, Grinnell, Keith Osland of Grinnell and Kristine Osland of Rte. 3, Grinnell; her stepmother, Ellen Deere of Newton; and a sister, Joyce Deere Hotchkin of Kellogg.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Colleen Deere Hoeksema and Janice Kay Deere.