

Ms Deanna Marie Osterloh

Deanna Marie Osterloh, 18, of Montezuma died Dec. 2, 1999 at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics in Iowa City.

Her funeral was Dec. 4 at Trinity Lutheran Church near Malcom with the Rev. Herb Knudten officiating.

Soloist Hillary Klingman sang, "Amazing Grace" and "How Great Thou Art" with Susie Edelen accompanying her on the organ. Recorded music was "The Dance" by Garth Brooks and "Live Until I Die" by Clay Walker. The music was followed by poetry, "A Thought," read by Bobbie Jo Wagner.

Casket bearers were Dale Wagner, Nathan Klingman, Christopher Osterloh, Delbert Riemer, Paul Moser and Larry Lerch. Interment followed at Trinity Lutheran Cemetery, MALCOM

Miss Osterloh was born June 26, 1981 in Guttenberg, the daughter of Marvin Dean and Christine Kay (Beatty) Osterloh. She moved to Montezuma in January 1997 from Minot, ND and graduated from Montezuma Community High School with the Class of 1999.

During her junior year, she played on the softball team. For the past 18 months, she was employed by Wal-Mart in Grinnell.

Miss Osterloh enjoyed time with her family, horses and rodeos and was an avid fan of the Atlanta Braves.

She was preceded in death by her great-grandparents, Alfred and Myrtle Volks and her great-grandmother, Louise Osterloh, with whom she shared her birthday.

She is survived by her mother, Chris Osterloh of Montezuma; her father, Dean Osterloh of Newton; a sister, Rebecca Osterloh and a brother, Nicholas Osterloh, both of Montezuma; her maternal grandparents, Sharon Kay Beatty of Guttenberg and John Beatty of Washburn, Wis.; her paternal grandparents, Gladys and Martin Osterloh of Rapids City, SD; her maternal great-grandmother, Iola Riemer of Edgewood; her maternal grandparents, Iva and Lawrence Bolsinger of Elkport; her paternal great-grandfather, Martin Osterloh, Sr. of Newman Grove, Neb.; other aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and many friends.

A memorial has been established in her name.

Deanna Osterloh

MA N D c e m b e r
8,
1999