

Andrew Leo Greene

Jan. 14, 1952-June 13, 2025

Andrew Leo Greene, 72, of Keswick, passed away on June 13, 2025, at his home, surrounded by family. Services were Wednesday, June 18, 2025 at the St. Joseph Catholic Church, in North English. Burial was held in the Sorden Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Keswick Fire and Rescue.

Andy was born Jan. 14, 1952 in Sigourney, the son of Frank and Theresa (Danskil) Greene. He graduated from Tri-County High School with the Class of 1971, attended Indian Hills Community College in Ottumwa, and was in the Iowa National Guard.

Andy was united in marriage to Kathy Campbell on Dec. 15, 1979, at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Keswick. He farmed all of his life, and enjoyed working with his cattle. Andy was an avid hunter, and enjoyed many sports, including football, baseball, wrestling and NASCAR. He loved spending time with his grandchildren, rarely missing any of their games and events.

Andy was a parishioner of St. Joseph Catholic Church in North English. In addition to working on the family farm, Andy was employed at Kinze Mfg. for 33 years. He was a hard worker with an excellent work ethic, setting a good example for all who worked with him.

In September 2021, Andy was diagnosed with Stage 4 pancreatic cancer. While he understood the statistics for this deadly disease, he maintained a realistic, yet optimistic attitude. Andy fought the good fight for over 3-1/2 years, passing away on June 13, 2025. He will be deeply missed.

Andy is survived by his wife Kathy Greene of Keswick; sons:

Anthony Greene of Montezuma and Damien Grant of Bloomfield; grandchildren, Owen Greene and Oliver Greene of Montezuma.

Andy is also survived by eight siblings: Pat Greene of Keswick, Terry (Willie) Greene of South English, Mary Greene of What Cheer, Kathy (John) Marnet of Iowa City, Beth (Mike) James of Deep River, Frank Greene of Keswick, Steve (Amy) Greene of Deep River, Richard Greene of Keswick, and multiple nephews and nieces.

Andy was preceded in death by his parents - Frank and Theresa; siblings - Francis, Jim, Mick and Ed; and his in-laws - Bill and Marge Campbell.

"They are not gone, who live on in our hearts."
