MRS. J. H. PALMER.

J. H. H.

Mrs. Myra Farmer Palmer was born in a farm near Montezuma forty-nine years and four months ago. She died in Texas and her remains were interred here last Friday.

Mrs. Palmer was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Farmer. She was united in marriage to J. H. Palmer and they moved to this city from Jackson township about fifteen years ago. Mr. Palmer going on the road for the Spaulding Manufacturing Co. After the death of their son here about two years ago they moved to Texas, where J. H. Palmer is working for a Marshalltown buggy company.

Her parents and one sister preceded her to the Better Land, leaving her husband to whom she had been happily married for thirty-one years, her daughter Marie, two brothers, J. J. Farmer of Ewart, and E. C. Farmer of Texas, and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Hall of Taintor and Mrs. I. Finch of Newton to mourn her loss. All these were present at the funeral excepting the latter who was prevented from being present by illness. The husband and her brother, E. C. Palmer, accompanied the body from Texas and a sister of Mr. Palmer, Mrs. D. C. Bevan, joined them at Moulton.

Those here from out of town for the funeral were Mrs. E. R. Williams and Mrs. Jane Farmer of Montezuma; Mrs. Libby Romei A. Finch and two daughters of Newton; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Porter of Ewart. Rebecca Lodge had charge of the services which were conducted at the Congregational church Friday morning and the remains interred in Hazelwood. The deceased was a niece of Mrs. J. A. Porter of this city.
