

Alvin T. Parmley Was Well Known Here

12-6-1924
Alvin T. Parmley was born June 13, 1847, in Wayne Co., Ky., died Aug. 30, 1924, at his home in Long Beach, California. Age 77 years, 2 months and 17 days.

In 1870 he moved to Rock Creek, Jasper Co., Iowa, where he lived until 1890. In 1872 he was married to Anna Burnett, daughter of John and Artameson Burnett, of Wayne Co., Ky. To this union were born seven children, the eldest dying in infancy. The living are :

Mrs. E. O. Young, Kansas City, Mo.;
Mrs. T. J. Stiles, Glendora, Calif.;
Mrs. L. J. High, Long Beach, Calif.;
Mrs. T. J. Dungan, Anaheim, Calif.;
W. L. Parmley, Woodland Park, Colo.;
Ray Parmley, Cushing, Okla.

In 1868 he was baptized into the rights and privileges of Bethel Church of the Predestinarian Baptists by Elder Cooper and lived his religion until the last moment of earthly life. In 1886 he was ordained to the office of deacon in the church of Jesus Christ, called Liberty of Regular Predestinarian Baptists in Jasper Co., Iowa. He filled the office with honor to his Master, and the comfort and satisfaction of his brothers and sisters in Christ the remainder of his life.

In 1890 he moved to Linn Co., Kansas. In Nov., 1909, moved to Cushing, Okla., and in June, 1922 came to Long Beach, Calif. His remains were laid to rest in the beautiful Inglewood Cemetery of Inglewood, Calif., where he had chosen his burial place the previous year, and from whence he will rise to meet the Lord whom he loved, in whom he believed, whom he served and in whose arms he sweetly and peacefully fell asleep.

Besides the children mentioned above, he leaves in sorrow his beloved and faithful wife, his brother, Robert Parmley, Glenns Ferry, Idaho, his sisters, Mrs. Isabelle Adkins, San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. Eunice Adkins, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. H. S. Young, Washington, Iowa; and Mrs. J. H. Ryan, Louisville, Ky., and the entire church in Jasper Co., Iowa, with all his many neighbors, friends and relatives there and also in Kansas, Okla., Long Beach and Los Angeles.
