David A. Paul services held

David A. Paul, 70, of rural Gilman, former Marshall County assessor and member of the local school board, died Saturday afternoon at a Marshalltown Hospital.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Gilman Community Church, with the Rev. Donald Britt officiating. Burial was at the Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman.

The son of James M. and Jane McCullough Paul, he was born July 11, 1909, near Newburg. He was a graduate of Gilman High School and the University of Iowa.

He was married to Irma Young on Sept. 11, 1935, in Iowa City. She preceded him in death in 1970. On May 7, 1972, he was married to Ann E. Stewart.

Mr. Paul was a member of the Gilman Community Church and a charter member of the Gilman Lions Club. He was active in Boy Scouts, served on the Gilman School Board for eight years, and was county assessor from 1958 until 1977.

Survivors include his wife, Ann; a daughter, Mrs. Gene (Judith) Falcone of Philadelphia, Pa.; two grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Robert (Ann) Lang of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his wife, a brother and a sister.
