

H-R July 19, 1986
Harold Paul dies Tuesday

Harold E. Paul, 64, of 221 West Church St., Gilman, died Tuesday morning, July 8, at his home.

Private funeral services will be conducted at the convenience of the family at Rose Hill Memorial Garden in Marshalltown. Memorials to the American Cancer Society in Mr. Paul's name may be sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell.

The son of Richard and Eleanor Friend Paul, he was born on March 18, 1922 in Marshall County. He attended school at Ferguson.

On Aug. 22, 1943, he was married to Marvel DeBates in Marshalltown. The couple lived in Marshall County, moving to Gilman in 1951. For the past 36 years, Mr. Paul was employed at the Swift's independent of Marshalltown, retiring in 1984.

He is survived by his wife; one son, Harold (Dick) Paul of Peyton, Colo.; three daughters, Barb Littlejohn of Logan, Ohio, Betty Reynolds of Laurel and Val Courter of Gilman; eight grandchildren; two sisters, Ruth Mann and Marlene Halverson, both of Marshalltown; and one brother, Don Paul, also of Marshalltown.

He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers.