

MARION

Pearl M. Paul

Pearl Maurene Paul, 94, of Kellogg died Saturday, April 15, 2000, at Colonial Manor in Baxter of heart failure.

Services were held Thursday, April 20, at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in Newton with the Rev. Morris Hurd, pastor of Kellogg United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg. Memorials may be made to Our Silent City.

A lifelong resident of Jasper County, she was born Aug. 20, 1905, in Kellogg, the daughter of John and Dolly Fleshman Shill. She attended Kellogg schools and was married Oct. 18, 1924, in Newton to Marion H. Paul. She was a homemaker and member of Kellogg United Methodist Church, Kellogg American Legion Auxiliary and Kellogg Garden Club.

She is survived by three sons, Harlow Paul, Bearcreek, N.C.; Mac Paul, Phoenix, Ariz., and Delmar Paul, Vallejo, Calif.; 15 grandchildren; four step grandchildren, several great grandchildren, and one brother Clarence Shill, Marshalltown.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband; one son John Paul; two brothers Wesley and Harold Shill and two sisters Eunice Faircloth and Millie Doane.