Oda R.

Sarah Louisa Woner Paul, daughter of Henry Payton and Lucey Burton Woner, was born near Cameron, in Clinton County, Mo., on Dec. 5, 1899. She attended the public schools and the Junior College in her home community.

When a young woman she professed Christ as her Lord and united with the Bayles Baptist church, Kansas City, Mo. After coming to Iowa she worshipped and worked faithfully in the Evangelical United Brethren rural church near her home.

On July 30, 1925, she was united in marriage to Oda Richard Paul at St. Joseph, Mo. One son, Richard, was born to the home. Mr. and Mrs. Paul moved to the Newburg community in March, 1932, and they have made their home in this community northwest of Grinnell ever since.

Sarah Louisa Paul loved her home and family and took active interest in her friends and community. Nearly two years ago she became ill and has been a patient sufferer until she passed away Jan. 20, 1958, past 58 years of age. She is preceded in death by her parents, one sister, and four brothers.

She is survived by her husband, O. R. Paul, and one son, Richard Woner Paul, of the home, Kellogg, Iowa; one sister, Mrs. Della M. Cannon, San Francisco, Calif.; several nieces and nephews, and many friends.

Funeral services were held Jan. 22, 10 a.m., at the Evangelical United Brethren church near Newburg, with Delbert Elliott, lay minister, officiating. Music was by Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Palmer and Mrs. Don Renaud.

Interment was in Chester cemetery, in Poweshiek county, under the direction of Smith Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Roy Brown, Jack Mason, John McIlrath, Warren Loudon, Ed Nott and Luverne Smith.
