Rites Held for Bette Paulson

Funeral services were conducted Monday, July 24, at Pasadena, Calif., for Bette Marie Paulson, 53, who died Thursday, July 20, at her home.

The daughter of George and Martha Magee Mason, she was born Dec. 10, 1918, at Newburg. She spent her childhood helping on the family farm. She was active in the church and very proficient in music, learning to play seven different instruments.

On April 7, 1945, she was married to Howard M. Paulson in California. The couple had five children: Carol Ann Marton of Tacoma, Wash.; Judy Bradford and Donna Howard of Pasadena, Calif.; Kaye of Colton, Calif.; and Steve of the family home at 247 Santa Paula in Pasadena.

Mrs. Paulson was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and was active in the choir.

She is survived by her husband; her children: three brothers, Earle of Pasadena, John of San Diego, and Robert of Grinnell; and two granddaughters, Lisa and Leslie Bradford.

Services were held at the church, with Elders Robert Austin, Robert Ashby, and Russell Peak officiating. Burial was in Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena.
