(By a Staff Correspondent)

Kellogg, Ia., Jan. 12, Special:

Funeral services for Paul Paulson, resident of Kellogg for the past 57 years, were held at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon with Rev. A. H. Schultz, pastor of the Lutheran church in State Center, in charge. Burial was made in Our Silent City, in the family lot.

Mr. Paulson was born Mar. 15, 1849, in North Schleswig, Denmark.

He came to this country in 1875 and located near Kellogg where he made his home on a farm until he retired a few years ago and moved into town. He was united in marriage in 1880 and seven children were born to this union, all of whom survive. Mrs. Paulson died Jan. 5, 1927, and since that time a daughter, Mrs. Tina Stevens, has made her home with him. He suffered a paralytic stroke some time ago and has been in poor health since. Death came Sunday evening at 11:20 due to a complication of ailments.

Surviving relatives include five daughters, Mrs. Tina Stevens at home. Mrs. Fred Young of C...
