

Last Rites Tuesday For Sally Pearson

Funeral services for Mrs. Arminta (Sally) Pearson, 80, were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at Brammer Funeral Home with the Rev. G.H. Hulsebus, pastor of First United Presbyterian church, officiating. Mrs. Ed Bartachek was organist.

Burial was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with Lee Cram, Robert Cram, Glen Slagle, Mark Johnston, Guy Dunton and L.H. Van Zee serving as pallbearers. Mrs. Guy Dunton and Mrs. Donald Sowerwine were in charge of flowers.

The daughter of Newton Jasper and Louisa Darland Ferguson, Arminta Ruth was born near Olivet in Mahaska county, Iowa, Nov. 8, 1882, and died at the Lone Elm nursing home in Grinnell August 25, 1963.

She grew up in the Olivet community and was married to James Henry Pearson. The couple lived in South Brooklyn for a number of years. Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Pearson was employed in the Lee Cram home. She had lived in rest homes for several years in Oskaloosa, New Sharon and Grinnell. While living in South Brooklyn she became a member of the Christian church.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lesta Witten of Big Clifty, Ky. and Mrs. Sadie McMains of New Sharon and one brother, Jesse Ferguson of Newton. Preceding her in death were her parents, her husband, four brothers and five sisters.
