

DIED

Frank Phipps

Frank Phipps died on Wednesday, June 6, at his farm home on Rock Creek, at the age of 71 years. He was ill only about two days, death being due to apoplexy.

Funeral services at the home on Thursday were conducted by the Masons of Kellogg.

Mr. Phipps was the brother of Tom Phipps, of this city, and was highly liked by a wide circle of friends.
