

MRS. HENRY PITMAN DIES.

12-9-1919
Old Time Resident of Grinnell Passes
Away at Home, Newberg, Ore.

Many old friends will regret to learn of the death at her home in Oregon, November 20, of Mrs. Henry Pitman, a former respected and well-liked citizen of Grinnell. The Newberg Graphic of Nov. 27 says:

"While engaged in helping her husband pack their household effects for shipment to Albany, on Thursday of last week, Mrs. Henry Pitman dropped dead at the home, 405 Hancock street. Mr. and Mrs. Pitman sold their home recently and were getting ready to move to Albany where they have a son engaged in business, when the end came suddenly without warning.

"Funeral services were conducted at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. chapel on Sunday afternoon and burial was made in the G. A. R. cemetery, Mr. Pitman being a veteran of the Civil War.

"The deceased was a descendant of John Quincy Adams, her father being J. J. Hatch, a Methodist minister. She was born October 11, 1848 at Waukegan, Illinois, and was married to Henry Pitman December 4, 1870, at Iola, Wisconsin. Three children were born to them, namely, Arthur Pitman, of Albany, Henry A. Pitman, of Cherokee, Iowa, and a daughter who lost her life in a cyclone at Grinnell, Iowa, when three years old.

"Mr. and Mrs. Pitman made their home in Newberg for the past seven years and while here made many very warm friends who will cherish their memory as the days go by."

Grinnell