Myron Plum, 65, Local Resident, Dies Saturday

Myron A. Plum, 65, of 521 Fourth Avenue, died Saturday afternoon at a local hospital. He had been in poor health for several years.

Services are scheduled for 2 p.m. Tuesday from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Lloyd A. Latta, Grinnell Methodist clergyman, officiating. Organ music will be provided by Mrs. Willard Heffner and flower bearers will be Mr. and Mrs. Marion Primus.

Pallbearers will be John Barker, Wayne Estal, Ivan McDonough, Harvey Jensen, Milton Jensen and Edwin Kasal. Burial will be in Hazelwood cemetery. Those desiring may contribute to the Methodist church building fund.

Born Oct. 15th, 1899, on a farm north of Malcom, he was the son of John Wesley and Malinda Robison Plum, one of a family of six children. He attended the rural schools of Malcom and later moved with his parents to a farm south of Grinnell.

On Oct. 20th, 1919, he was united in marriage with Florence Calista Johnson. To this union was born one daughter, Mrs. Raymond (Mable) Ziegenmeyer of Grinnell. In addition to his wife and daughter, he is survived by three grandchildren, James Ziegenmeyer of the U.S. Air Force, and Sandi and Carolyn Ziegenmeyer, both of Grinnell. Also surviving are several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers and one sister.

Mr. Plum had moved to Grinnell from the farm in 1920 and was self-employed as a mechanical and electrical repairman. He was a member of the Grinnell Methodist church.
