

. JULY 20, 1967

Rites Here Thursday For Mrs. Pohlman Of Madison, Wisc.

Funeral services for a former Montezuma resident, Mrs. Clifford Pohlman, will be held Thursday at the Steffy Funeral Home. The Rev. Howard Hayes will conduct the services beginning at 2:30 p.m. followed by interment at the Masonic-IOOF Cemetery.

Mrs. Pohlman, 54, was the former Erma B. Douglass. Her death was the result of a pedestrian-auto accident at Madison, Wisc., Monday evening, July 17. She was struck and killed as she was leaving a grocery store.

Mrs. Pohlman and her husband had been residents of Madison for about nine years. She was born Oct. 21, 1912, and educated in the Montezuma schools.

Survivors include her husband and one son, James of Plainfield, Wisc.; two sisters, Mrs. Doris Shearer of Gibson and Mrs. John Parker of Phoenix, Ariz.; and a brother, Ben Douglass of Gibson.
