

Fred Puls
November 9, 1967

Fred Puls, 88, of route 3, Grinnell, passed away Friday morning at a local hospital, following an extended illness. The son of Louis and Minnie Schultz Puls, he was born Nov. 20, 1878, near Malcom. He attended the rural schools of Malcom Township and on Dec. 6, 1905, was united in marriage to Emma Hink at her parents' home in Chester Township.

Following their marriage, the couple farmed near Trinity Lutheran church, and also southeast of Grinnell. In 1911 they moved to their farm in Chester Township, where he farmed until ten years ago, at which time he retired. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran church.

He is survived by his children, Floyd and Delmar, Grinnell, Mrs. Ernest (Edna) Badger, Grinnell, and Walter of Malcom. He is also survived by a brother, Elmer, of Grinnell, two sisters, Mrs. Josie Mithelman and Mrs. Evelyn Gross of Grinnell, four grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, a daughter Leona at age 8, an infant son, a grandson, Henry, brothers John, Theodore and Louis and sisters Ida Ferguson and Marie Fogel.

Funeral services for Mr.

Puls were held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran church. A prayer service preceded the funeral at 2 p.m. at the James-Schalinske Funeral home. The Rev. John Pannkuk, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, officiated. Organist was Mrs. Kenneth Plum, and pallbearers were Delmar Luttman, Elmer Luttman, Clare Gross, Louis Puls, Robert Puls and Shirley Puls.

Serving on the flower committee were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Dare and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plum.

Interment was in the Trinity Lutheran Cemetery.

16--Brooklyn (Ia.) Chronicle

--November 9, 1967

Frederick Martin

H-R
 Monday, November 6, 1967

Fred Puls, 88,
 Services Sunday

Fred Puls, 88, of Rte. 3, Grinnell, passed away Friday morning at a local hospital, following an extended illness.

The son of Louis and Minnie Schultz Puls, he was born Nov. 20, 1878, near Malcom. He attended the rural schools of Malcom Township and on Dec. 6, 1905, was united in marriage to Emma Hink at her parents' home in Chester Township.

Following their marriage, the couple farmed near Trinity Lutheran church, and also southeast of Grinnell. In 1911 they moved to their farm in Chester Township, where he farmed until ten years ago, at which time he retired. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran church.

He is survived by his children Floyd and Delmar of Grinnell, Mrs. Ernest (Edna) Badger of Grinnell, and Walter of Malcom. He is also survived by a brother Elmer of Grinnell, sisters Mrs. Josie Mithelman and Mrs. Evelyn Gross of Grinnell, four grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, a daughter Leona at age 8, an infant son, a grandson Henry, brothers John, Theodore, and Louis, and sisters Ida Ferguson and Marie Fogel.

Funeral services for Mr. Puls were held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church. A prayer service preceded the funeral at 2 p.m. at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home. The Rev. John Pannkuk, pastor of Trinity Lutheran, officiated. Organist was Mrs. Kenneth Plum, and pallbearers were Delmar Luttman, Elmer Luttman, Clare Gross, Louis Puls, Robert Puls, and Shirley Puls.

Serving on the flower committee were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Dare and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plum.

Interment was in the Trinity Lutheran Cemetery.