Bernice Quire services held

Charles T

Bernice Quire, 83, of Lynnville died Friday, Nov. 14, at Grinnell General Hospital.

A memorial service was conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Lynnville Friends Church, with the Rev. Kenneth Santee officiating. Organist was Harriet Macy, and pallbearers were Henry Jansen, Don Jansen, Russell Gosselink, Robert Gosselink, Ray Ver Steegh and Carl Crews. Burial was in Woodland Cemetery with the Harden Funeral Home of New Sharon in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of George and Leoda Roberts McCoy, she was born on May 27, 1903, at Lynnville, where she spent most of her life. She attended Lynnville School, graduating from high school in 1920. She was also a graduate of A.I.B. business college in Des Moines.

On Feb. 7, 1923, she was married to Charles T. Quire. The family lived on the same farm north of Lynnville for 35 years. After her husband's death, Mrs. Quire moved to Lynnville until failing health necessitated a move to Grinnell in 1971. She became a resident of Friendship Manor two years later.

Mrs. Quire was a member of the Lynnville Friends Church.

She is survived by one daughter, Joyce Woodworth of Florence, Ala.; one brother, Dale McCoy of Lone Oak, Texas; three grandchildren and one great-grandson. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and one sister, Vera McCoy.
