

Funeral Held Monday For Alfred Rayburn

Funeral services for Alfred Rayburn of Montezuma were held Monday morning at the Steffy Funeral Home. The Rev. Howard Hayes officiated at the service with music provided by Miss Alice Underwood, organist.

Interment was in IOOF Cemetery. Serving as casket bearers were Marcus Shearer, Walter Hockey, Revan Wilcox, Harold Bushong, Fred Curry and Cliff Smith.

Mr. Rayburn died Saturday, Feb. 19, after a short illness. He was 82 years old.

Alfred William Rayburn was born Aug. 13, 1883, the sixth child of J. G. and Anna Rayburn. He was the last surviving member of the family having been preceded in death by two sisters, four brothers and his parents.

He was married in 1909. His wife preceded him in death some 28 years ago.

Mr. Rayburn was a retired railroad machinist. Besides Montezuma he lived five years in Waterloo and 33 years in Cedar Rapids.
