

H-R

Thursday, February 16, 1961

Former Resident
B. H. Rayl Dies
Feb. 2 In Texas

B. H. Rayl, 92, a former Grinnell area resident, died Feb. 2nd at his home in San Antonio, Texas, and was buried at Karnes City, Texas.

He had formerly lived south of Grinnell in the Sugar Creek neighborhood. He was the father of Gladys R. Howell, who resigned at the close of the last school year from the Sully schools where she had taught for 25 years.

Mr. Rayl is survived by his wife, Edna; two daughters, Gladys Howell of Terre Haute, Ind., and Mrs. Clifton Dennis of California; and four grandchildren.