Last Thanksgiving Day they celebrated their golden wedding and it was not given them to live long after that happy event. Mrs. John L. Reams died March 14, 1900. F. lodge, of which he was an honored member, was out from Brooklyn acting as escort and conducting their burial service at the grave. At her death she left one brother who lives in Pennsylvania, and he leaves one brother, J. C. Reams of Sheridan, and one brother in Oregon and one sister in Pennsylvania.
