Rites set for Mrs. Reavis

Mary Elizabeth Reavis, 87, of 320 Park St., Grinnell, died early Wednesday at Friendship Manor. 2-11-76

Funeral services for Mrs. Reavis will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Winford Clifton, pastor of the Grinnell First Friends Church, officiating. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Reavis's name may be made to the First Friends Church.

The daughter of Harmon and Louisa Stever Wisemiller, she was born Feb. 19, 1888, in Grinnell. She attended Grinnell public schools and was graduated from Grinnell High School in 1907.

On April 21, 1909, she was married to James Turner Reavis in University Park, Iowa. The couple had two children. Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Reavis made their home in Grinnell. Mrs. Reavis was a member of the First Friends Church where she taught Sunday school.

Survivors include her two children, Mrs. Floyd (Edith) Taylor of Bargersville, Ind., and H. LaVerne Reavis of Grinnell; six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Turner, who died in 1961; her parents; one grandchild; one brother, John Wisemiller; and two sisters, Christina MacDonald and Celestia Wisemiller.
