

Charles Rector ¹⁹⁶⁶ Dies in Chicago

Brooklyn friends have been notified of the death of Charles E. Rector of Moline, Ill., who suffered a fatal heart attack in Chicago Friday morning, Oct. 7. Associated with the Spiegel company he was on a business trip in Chicago when stricken.

Rector, 41, was employed by the Bramer Funeral home and Furniture store in the late 1950's. He married while in Brooklyn and the couple had one son, Billie, 5. His wife, Pearl, and son survive. His parents preceded him in death.

Burial was Sunday afternoon in his home town, Odebolt. Memorial services were held Monday afternoon at South Park Presbyterian church, Rock Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bramer had visited the Rectors in Moline during August. Later that month the Rector family visited here in the Bramer home and with Mr. and Mrs. Maynard McLain.
