Rites held for

Mrs. Redding

KELLOGG (Special)—Ellen Marie Redding, 91, of Kellogg died Sunday morning, Oct. 22, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Ashby of Grinnell.

Mrs. Redding was a lifelong resident of Kellogg.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Kellogg, with burial at Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg. Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Redding's name may be made to the St. Paul's Memorial Fund.

Pallbearers were Allan Ashby, Gordon Ashby, Gary Olson, Carl Pickett, Donald W. Redding, Dale Schultz, Darrell Ashby, Bert Hoezee, and George Redding. Mrs. Jack Danks and Mrs. Louis Hasselbrink were in charge of flowers. The Rev. Ernest Elzey and the Rev. W.H. Lindquist officiated.

The daughter of John and Augusta Johnson, she was born Nov. 21, 1886, in Kellogg. She attended the University of Northern Iowa at Cedar Falls. On June 24, 1908, she was married to George Redding in Knoxville.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Harry Ashby of Grinnell; two sons, Donald and Virgil, both of Kellogg; 11 grandchildren; 37 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband in 1941, a son, three grandchildren, two sisters, and four brothers.

Mrs. Redding was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and the Kellogg Garden Club. She was a former school teacher and had been employed at the Midwest factory and the Kellogg Savings Bank until her retirement.
