

Mildred Kensinger Reed (ROY)

Graveside services were held at 11 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 5, at the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery for Mildred Kensinger Reed, 97, of Hot Springs, Ark., a former resident of the Brooklyn area, who died Wednesday, Aug. 26, 1998, in St. Joseph's Regional Health Center, Hot Springs. Rev. William Daylong, pastor of Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn, will officiate.

Millie, as she was known, had lived in Arkansas since 1977, when she and her husband moved to Hot Springs from Bemidji, Minn.

Millie was born Aug. 24, 1901, at Brooklyn, to Benjamin and Carrie Kensinger, and was a graduate nurse, having graduated from Iowa Methodist School of Nursing in 1921.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy.

Survivors include her son, and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed of Hot Springs Village; her nieces Carolyn Papierski of Livonia, Mich., and Susie Mahmood of Huntington Beach, Calif.

She was a member of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Hot Springs Village. Nevenhoven Funeral Services are in charge of arrangements.
