Johanna Rehberg, Longtime Resident Of Area, Dies

Frederic E.

Johanna H. Rehberg, 89, of Rte. 3, Grinnell, died Saturday evening at a hospital in Des Moines.

Services are to be held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday from St. John's Lutheran church with the Rev. Laverne Streich officiating. Interment will be in Ivy Hill cemetery at Malcom with James-Schalinske Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Daughter of Peter and Wiebke Stoldt Hanssen, she was born on June 20, 1875, at Blue Grass, Ia. She attended the schools of that community and when she was 9, her parents moved to Malcom where she completed her education.

On April 29, 1896, at the family home near Malcom, she was united in marriage with Fred E. Rehberg. Following their marriage, they farmed in the Sheridan community until 1926 when they retired and moved to Grinnell. Her husband preceded her in death on May 3, 1935, and for the past 11 years Mrs. Rehberg had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Timm of rural Grinnell.

She was a member of St. John's Lutheran church, being confirmed in April of 1941, and was a charter member of the Women of the Church.

Survivors include her son, Harry Rehberg of Grinnell; her daughter, Mrs. Fred (Nonie) Timm of Rte. 3, Grinnell; and nine grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her parents; a daughter, Stella, on Dec. 13, 1959; and two brothers, Albert and Henry Hanssen.
