

Sherman C. Reichelt

Sherman C. Reichelt, 84, of rural Kellogg died of cancer at his home Monday, April 22.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Kellogg, with the Rev. Robert E. Waters officiating. Organist was Ann Buchmeier, and vocalist was Marilyn Berthelsen. Pallbearers were Raymond Coburn, Jerry Deal, Wendall Huff, Kenneth Keenan, Harold McCulloch, Stanley Osborn, Robert Paulson and Albert Schinkel. Burial was in Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg, with the Smith Funeral Home of Grinnell in charge of arrangements.

The son of Hugo and Glora Thon Reichelt, he was born Aug. 10, 1906, in Langdon, N.D. The family moved to a farm east of Kellogg in 1907 where he had lived ever since.

He attended rural school, graduating from Kellogg High School in 1925. He then attended the University of Illinois where he played football with the legendary Red Grange. A farm accident which resulted in the loss of an eye ended Mr. Reichelt's college career, but he later played semi-professional baseball for teams in Grinnell, Newton and Kellogg.

Mr. Reichelt operated Sherman's Fish Hatchery on his farm and also ran a grain and livestock operation. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and had attended Hickory Grove Church.

He was married to Lillian Kimball Aug. 10, 1932, and she died in 1981. Also preceding him in death was an infant son, Gerald, and his parents.

He is survived by a sister, Katherine Schaumburg of Kellogg.

Memorials in Mr. Reichelt's name may be made to the Kellogg Historical Society, St. Paul's Lutheran Church or the Hickory Grove Church and may be left at the Smith Funeral Home.

H-R April 25, 1991

S. REICHELT