Harry Reimers Services Held

Funeral services for Harry John Reimers, 96, former Poweshiek County farmer, were held Saturday, Aug. 15, at the Bramer Funeral Home in Brooklyn. The Rev. Elmer Elzey of Malcom officiated.

Pallbearers included Arthur Keller, Lester Schneekloth, Charles Jones, Dan McConnell Jr., LaVern Hand and William Nagel. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Le Beau and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McKeag served on the flower committee. Interment was in the Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

Mr. Reimers was born on Oct. 26, 1875, the son of the late Claus Reimers and Mathilda Schmitz Reimers. His family moved to Poweshiek County when he was nine years old, and he lived in the county until his marriage in January, 1908, to Rosy Ohland. The couple had two sons, Harley and Robert. Mr. and Mrs. Reimers lived in Texas for two years, then returned to Poweshiek County and lived in the Sheridan and Madison communities until going to Brookhaven in 1968.

Mr. Reimers farmed all his life. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church of Malcom. He died Aug. 12.

He is survived by his sons, Harley and Robert; one brother, Claus of Jackson, Mich.; nine grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife Rosy, his parents and seven sisters.
