John H. Renaud Dies At Local Hospital Tuesday

John H. Renaud, 105 Elm street, died at a local hospital Tuesday evening following a prolonged illness.

A resident of Grinnell since 1947, Renaud had been hospitalized for the past six weeks. Engaged in farming prior to moving here, he had operated a farm in the Newburg area.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday, May 11th, at 2:00 p.m. from the Congregational church in Grinnell. The Rev. Leland Mann will officiate at the rites.

Interment will be in Hazelwood cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Mrs. George Soukup of Marietta, Ga.; a son, Donald Renaud of Newburg; one sister, Mrs. Leo Davis of Lynnville; and four brothers, Ben of Des Moines, Ed of Grinnell, and Raymond and Clifford, both of Cleveland, Ohio.

Also surviving are five grandchildren.
