

Paul Rice Services Sunday At Barnes City

Funeral services for Paul D. Rice were Sunday afternoon at the Barnes City Methodist Church. The Rev. James Seeber officiated. Music was provided by Mrs. James Gillam and Mrs. Joe Rosburg accompanied by Mrs. William Landstrum, organist.

Interment was in the Barnes City Cemetery. Casket bearers were Paul Case, Guy Hutton, Wayne Pitman, Leslie Steele, Harold Lester, and Roger Sampson.

Mr. Rice, 61, died Friday, April 19, at Grinnell General Hospital.

The son of Gertrude and Clark C. Rice, he was born in Clear Lake, Iowa, on Nov. 24, 1906.

After graduating from high school he attended Iowa State College at Ames, specializing in Dairy Herd Improvement. While in this field he worked for colleges in Illinois and Kentucky.

On Feb. 19, 1933, he was united in marriage with Florence Moller. To this union three daughters were born. They lived in southern Iowa where he engaged in dairy farming. Nine years ago they moved to their present home in Barnes City where he has been interested in farming and the insurance business.

Mr. Rice was a member of the Methodist Church, serving on the Official Board and as Lay Leader. He has served on the local school board. For the past two years he has been Master of the Barnes City Masonic Lodge. Mr. Rice was a candidate for Poweshiek County Supervisor at the time of his death.

He was preceded in death by his father and one brother,

Kenneth.

He is survived by his wife and their three daughters, Mrs. Martha Rourke of Anchorage, Alaska; Mrs. Mary Lee Alford of Eugene, Oregon; Mrs. Evelyn Wanders of Barnes City; eight grandchildren, Gail, Linda and Kenneth Rourke; Bret and Mark Miles; Teresa, Kenneth and Debra Wanders; his mother, Mrs. Clark C. Rice, of Clear Lake; four brothers; and two sisters.

Paul Rice of Barnes City Dies; Was Supervisor Candidate

A leading Barnes City resident and 1968 candidate for Poweshiek county supervisor died April 19. Paul Rice, 61, taken ill suddenly, died in Grinnell hospital.

Services for Paul D. Rice were April 21 at the Barnes City Methodist church, the Rev. James Seeber officiating. Music was provided by Mrs. James Gillam and Mrs. Joe Rosburg accompanied by Mrs. William Landstrum, organist.

Interment was in the Barnes City cemetery. Casket bearers were Paul Case, Guy Hutton, Wayne Pitman, Leslie Steele, Harold Lester, and Roger Sampson.

The son of Gertrude and Clark C. Rice, he was born in Clear Lake, Iowa, on Nov. 24, 1906.

After graduating from high school he attended Iowa State College at Ames, specializing in Dairy Herd Improvement. While in this field he worked for colleges in Illinois and Kentucky.

On Feb. 19, 1933, he was united in marriage with Florence Moller. To this union three daughters were born. They lived in southern Iowa where he engaged in dairy farming. Nine years ago they moved to their present home in Barnes City where he has been interested in farming and the insurance business.

Mr. Rice was a member of the Methodist Church, serving on the Official Board and as Lay Leader. He has served on the local school board. For the past two years he has been Master of the Barnes City Masonic Lodge. Mr. Rice was a candidate for Poweshiek County Supervisor at the time of his death.

He was preceded in death by his father and one brother, Kenneth.

He is survived by his wife and their three daughters, Mrs. Martha Rourke of Anchorage, Alaska; Mrs. Mary Lee Alford of Eugene, Ore.; Mrs. Evelyn Wanders of Barnes City; eight grandchildren, Gail, Linda and Kenneth Rourke; Bret and Mark Miles; Teresa, Kenneth and Debra Wanders; his mother, Mrs. Clark C. Rice of Clear Lake; four brothers, and two sisters.