

Richman Rites At Oskaloosa March 16

Funeral services for Delmar Henry Richman, 60, former Brooklyn resident, were held March 16 at Powers funeral home in Oskaloosa. Burial was at Conner cemetery at Sigourney. Rev. Richard Goins of First Christian church at Oskaloosa officiated.

Mr. Richman, who operated a trucking business at Brooklyn prior to World War II, died at Mahaska hospital in Oskaloosa March 13, the victim of a heart attack. He had suffered an earlier attack in December of last year.

Born in Poweshiek county, in recent years he had lived in Sigourney and for the past two years had resided in Oskaloosa. He had been employed for the past 16 years by Van Gorp Implement of Oskaloosa.

Surviving are his widow, Gladys Richman; two sisters, Mrs. Mildred Short of North Vernon, Ind., and Mrs. Blanche James of Connisky, Ind.; three brothers, Charles of North Vernon, Ind., Edward of Arlington, Neb., and Crawford of Eremerton, Wash.

The Brooklyn Chronicle
Thursday, Mar. 28, 1963