

Dorothy Richman, 80

(FILED)

Dorothy M. Richman, 80, died March 15, 1999 in Grinnell.

Her funeral was March 18 at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. The Rev. Del Dawes of the United Methodist Church in Grinnell was officiant.

Music by soloist Rhonda Minner was "The Old Rugged Cross" and "The Church in the Wildwood." Alice Underwood accompanied on the organ.

Steve Richman, David M. Richman, Eric Kingery, David A. Richman, R. Jay Agnew and Troy Kingery were casket bearers.

She was laid to rest at Jackson Township Cemetery in Montezuma.

Mrs. Richman was born near Victor to Daniel L. and Margaret (Seibert) Weisskopf on Oct. 25, 1918.

On June 29, 1937, she married Floyd P. Richman at the Little Brown Church in the Vale in Nashua. The couple renewed their vows there on June 27, 1987 after 50 years of marriage. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in June 1997 at the Lake Ponderosa Association Building with family and friends.

The couple had four children, Sharon Jay, Judith Ann, Larry Floyd and Lynn Charles.

During their 62-year marriage, the Richmans lived in Victor, Deep River, Malcom, Montezuma, Lake Ponderosa and Grinnell.

Mrs. Richman worked at grocery stores in Victor and Montezuma, at an ice cream parlor in Grinnell and at James Produce in Montezuma. She then turned to the occupation from which she retired, child care.

Mrs. Richman was a past member of Methodist Women's circles in Grinnell and Montezuma and belonged to United Methodist Church in Montezuma.

She enjoyed children, family get-togethers, card-playing and board games. She was adept at rummy and 500 and she and her husband belonged to card groups in Malcom, Montezuma and Grinnell.

Preceding her in death were her parents, Dan and Margaret; two brothers, Lester and Daniel and a sister, Vera.

She is survived by her husband, Floyd; her children and their spouses, Sharon and Calvin Kingery of Grinnell, Judy and Bob Agnew of Lake Ponderosa, Larry and Connie Richman of Urbandale and Lynn and Juanita Richman of Iowa City; eight grandchildren and their spouses, Sonja and Terry Morrison, Eric and Julie Kingery, Troy Kingery and Trish Agnew Sears, all of Grinnell; R. Jay and Heather Agnew of Cedar Rapids, Steve and Lori Richman of Des Moines, David A. and Beth Richman of Winterset and David M. and Dawn Richman of Prairie Village, Kan.; eight great-grandchildren, Joshua Morrison, Mitchell Kingery, Emily and Jacob Sears, R. Trevor Agnew, Katie and Kyle Richman and Dylan Richman; one sister, Alma Heitman of Marengo; her brother's wife, Grace Weisskopf of Marengo; several brothers and sisters-in-law, many nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Memorials may be directed to St. Francis Manor in Grinnell.

Dorothy M. Richman

Dorothy M. Weisskopf Richman, 80, of Grinnell, formerly of Lake Ponderosa, died Monday, March 15, in Grinnell.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. Del Dawes, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating. Soloist was Rhonda Minner, and organist was Alice Underwood. Casket bearers were Steve, David A. and David M. Richman, Eric and Troy Kingery and R. Jay Agnew. Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

She was the daughter of Daniel L. and Margaret Seibert Weisskopf and was born Oct. 25, 1918, near Victor. She was married to Floyd P. Richman June 29, 1937.

Mrs. Richman had worked in grocery stores in Victor and Montezuma, an ice cream parlor in Grinnell and James Produce in Montezuma before turning to the occupation of child care.

She and her husband had lived in Victor, Deep River, Malcom, Montezuma, Lake Ponderosa and Grinnell.

She was a member of several card groups in Malcom, Montezuma and Grinnell. She was a past member of the Methodist women's circles in Grinnell and Montezuma and was a member of the United Methodist Church in Montezuma at the time of her death.

Surviving are her husband; her children, Sharon Kingery of Grinnell, Judy Agnew of Lake Ponderosa, Larry of Urbandale and Lynn of Iowa City; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and one sister, Alma Heitman of Marengo.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Lester and Daniel; and one sister, Vera.

H-R March 22, 1999

Dorothy M. Richman

Funeral services were held Thursday, March 18, at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma for Dorothy M. Weisskopf Richman, 80, of Grinnell, who died Monday, March 15, 1999, in Grinnell.

The Rev. Del Dawes, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiated. Soloist was Rhonda Minner, and organist was Alice Underwood. Casket bearers were Steve, David A. and David M. Richman, Eric and Troy Kingery and R. Jay Agnew. Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

Dorothy was the daughter of Daniel L. and Margaret Seibert Weisskopf, and was born Oct. 25, 1918, near Victor. She was married to Floyd P. Richman June 29, 1937.

She had worked in grocery stores in Victor and Montezuma, an ice cream parlor in Grinnell and James Produce in Montezuma, before turning to the occupation of child care.

She and her husband had lived in Victor, Deep River, Malcom, Montezuma, Lake Ponderosa and Grinnell.

She was a member of several card groups in Malcom, Montezuma and Grinnell. She was a past member of the Methodist women's circles in Grinnell and Montezuma and was a member of the United Methodist Church in Montezuma at the time of her death.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, Lester and Daniel; and one sister, Vera.

Surviving are her husband; her children, Sharon Kingery of Grinnell, Judy Agnew of Lake Ponderosa, Larry of Urbandale and Lynn of Iowa City; eight grand-

BC March 31, 1999