

Elmer G. Richman Rites Wednesday

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Grace Methodist church for Elmer G. Richman, 72, longtime Brooklyn area resident who died Sunday afternoon at a Grinnell hospital.

Richman had been taken to the hospital Thursday afternoon after falling from a stepladder at Brookhaven Nursing Home where he had been painting windows.

Rev. E. Edward Philgreen officiated at the services and burial was in the IOOF cemetery, Brooklyn. Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Maynard McLain, Mrs. Mae Schrader, and Mrs. Bert Gillette. Casket bearers were Herb Haas, Bert Gillette, C. W. Fowler, Harold Schrader, Donald D. Palmer, and Robert Schepers.

Richman, a 50-year member of the K of P lodge, is survived by his widow, Edna; four children, Mrs. Maxine Wells of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Barbara Miller of Brooklyn, Mrs. Nancy Nickols of Knoxville, and Max R. Richman of Sonyvale, Calif.; two brothers, Frank of Brooklyn and Earl of Muscatine; one sister, Mrs. Margaret Montgomery of Dallas, Texas; and 16 grandchildren.
