

Funeral Services Held For Mrs Olive Richman

Mrs. Julia Olive Richman, 81, a Brooklyn resident for many years, died July 11 at a nursing home at Port Orchard, Wash. where she had lived the past seven years.

Funeral services were held July 14 in Bremerton, Wash. in charge of the Rev. Albert Wilson, pastor of the Methodist church. Rites were also conducted by the Mystic Rebekah Lodge. Interment was at Bremerton.

Julia Olive, oldest daughter of William and Ammina Cunning Fry, was born July 18, 1880, near Brooklyn. She was a member of the Methodist church and the Deborah Rebekah lodge for the past 51 years, having served as past noble grand.

She worked as a housekeeper, dressmaker and telephone operator here until her marriage to William Henry Richman June 10, 1922, at Marengo. The couple operated a grocery store at Brooklyn until the death of Mr. Richman April 27, 1937.

She lived in Brooklyn and with a brother in Marshalltown before going to Bremerton, Wash. in 1944, to live with a step-daughter and her husband, Lois and Crawford Richman. She worked for a short time at Yakima, Wash. Due to poor eye sight she was forced to give up work and return to the Richman home until entering the nursing home where she was confined to her bed.

She is survived by her step-daughter, Lois Richman; two grandsons, James K. of Bremerton and Jerry of Sunnyvale, Calif.; a step-mother, Mary Gwin of Waterloo; a sister, Mrs. Henry Stahl of Grinnell and a brother, Paul Fry of Marshalltown.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; a sister, Wilma; and two brothers.

20 The Brooklyn Chronicle
Thursday, July 26, 1962

William H)