

Lulu Rider H.

H-R

Monday, January 7, 1963

Mrs. Lulu Rider Buried At Malcom

Former area resident Mrs. Lulu Rider, 87, of Chicago, died there Thursday morning.

Graveside services were held Sunday afternoon from Ivy Hill cemetery at Malcom with the Rev. James Robinson, pastor of the Malcom Methodist church, officiating.

Born May 8, 1874, at Malcom, she was the daughter of Clark and Ella Shipley Varnum. After attending the Malcom schools, she moved to Newton with her parents when she was 10 years old and continued her schooling there. In 1891, she moved to Chicago where she completed her education.

In 1897, she was united in marriage with William H. Rider. Following their marriage, she was employed as a secretary, and from 1922, served for 18 years as secretary to Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

Mrs. Rider is survived by one sister, Miss Blanche Varnum of River Forest, Ill., and a cousin, Patience Meigs Weston of Los Angeles, Calif.