

Erwin K. Rohr

Erwin K. Rohr, 82, of Lynn, Mass., the brother of Carl and Loring Rohr of Grinnell, died Wednesday, June 30, at his home.

Funeral services were conducted July 3 at the First Lutheran Church in Lynn, with burial in Puritan Lawn Memorial Park, Peabody, Mass.

The son of Charles and Rosa Beck Rohr, he was born in Malcom. He was a 1928 graduate of Malcom High School.

After receiving a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Iowa State University in 1938, he taught at North Dakota State University, Fargo.

In the early 1940s, he moved to Lynn to work at General Electric Co. as a generator design engineer. He retired in 1975.

Mr. Rohr served as treasurer of the Lynn Council of Churches/Greater Linn Community of Churches for several years and was treasurer of the Lutheran Church New England Synod for 10 years. As a member of First Lutheran Church, he was a board member, a church school teacher and a building committee member.

He was the author of "Meditations," a collection of inspirational articles. Mr. Rohr was a member of the Elfun Society and the American Institute of Electrical Engineering.

Surviving are his wife, June Mjovig Rohr; three sons, Paul of Enfield, Conn., Philip of Newburyport, Mass., and Donald of North Augusta, S.C.; four brothers, Oscar of Portland, Ore., John of Marengo, and Carl and Loring of Grinnell; and six grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a son, Keith.

A-R
JULY 8, 1993