M. BLANCHE ROHRER

Raymond

M. Blanche Rohrer, 83, of 613 Williams Street, Victor, died Thursday, Oct. 30, 1986, at St. Lukes Hospital in Cedar Rapids.

She was the daughter of Peter Alfred and Hester Mary Nace Harrier and was born on March 26, 1903 in Victor. She attended schools in Victor and Marengo and was a graduate of Marengo High School with the class of 1922. Mrs. Rohrer attended college in Ames for one year and later taught at the Little Red School near Victor.

On Oct. 15, 1925, she was married to Raymond Rohrer at Marengo. The couple lived in Marengo and later moved to Victor where she worked as a cook at the Victor School and for the Victor State Bank. She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Victor, and the United Methodist Women.

Survivors include her husband: Raymond G. Rohrer of Victor; two sons: Donald D. Rohrer and Richard A. Rohrer, both of Victor; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She is also survived by one sister; Letha F. arrier of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her parents and an infant brother.

Funeral services were at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home in Victor with the Rev. Jack Weida, pastor of the Colo United Methodist Church and the Rev. Lloyd Brockmeyer of St. Paul's Methodist Church of Cedar Rapids, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Jane Alexander and vocalist was Jerry Henning.

Pallbearers were James Collins of Victor, Marty Kolars of Malcom, Brian Nixon of Monticello, Minn., Kevin Rohrer of Victor, James Roth of Ames and Richard Schlesselman of Parnell. Flower bearers were Richard and Alicia Brandt and Robert and Lorretta Michalek, all of Victor. Burial was in the I.O.O.F. Cemetery at Victor. Should friends desire, memorials may be made to the Miriam B. Rohrer Memorial Fund in care of the funeral home.
