

Mr. Rozendaal services held

Adrian M. Rozendaal, 80, of Sully died Monday, July 18, at St. Francis Manor in Grinnell.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the Sully First Reformed Church, with the Revs. B. Daniel Hakken and Ralph Menning officiating. Burial was in Sully Cemetery, with the Van-Dyke Duven Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The son of William and Jane Terlouw Rozendaal, he was born June 23, 1908, north of Sully. He attended Center School and Sully High School, graduating in 1925.

Mr. Rozendaal was married to Wilma F. Eckhoff, Nov. 28, 1935, in Hollendale, Minn. He was employed as a carpenter and later farmed north of Sully until his retirement in 1971. He had lived in Sully since 1986.

He was a former president of the Lynnville-Sully Board of Education, a member of the First Reformed Church and a member of the board of the Sully Cooperative.

Surviving are his wife, Wilma; five children, Wayne A. of Denver, Colo., Joyce Stubbe of Quito, Ecuador, Lucille Schauper of State Center, Mary Jane Rozendaal of Fort Worth, Texas, and Anthony of Columbus, Ohio; nine grandchildren; one great-grandson; and four brothers, Fred of Pella and John, Albert and Ted, all of Sully.

He was preceded in death by his parents; five brothers, Henry, Anthony, Herman, Peter and Walter; and two sisters, Maggie Van Genderen and Pearl Reynen.

H-12
July 25, 1988