Rites held for
Doris Rudkin

Doris Rudkin, 83, of 1121 West St., Grinnell, died Friday, Nov. 20, at her home. Death was due to natural causes, according to the Poweshiek County medical examiner.

A memorial service will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 2, at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Raymond C. Lott, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating. Organist will be Margaret Wheeler. The body has been cremated, and burial of the ashes will be in Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of David and Aprie Green Wells, she was born on Jan. 10, 1904, near Osceola. She graduated from Osceola High School and later attended business school.

She was married to Elwyn L. Rudkin in Corydon in 1924. The couple farmed briefly, then came to Grinnell in 1933 where they operated the Rudkin Hatchery. Mr. Rudkin died in 1953 and she sold the business and traveled as a secretary for the Iowa Poultry Association.

There are no immediate survivors. Mrs. Rudkin was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one sister, Della Fouche; and four brothers, Marvin, Granville, Willis and Harold Wells.
