Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. today (Monday, July 26) at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home for Nelle M. Rule, 92, of 1410 4th Ave., who died Thursday afternoon, July 22, at the Happy Hour Nursing Home following an extended illness.

The Rev. Leland W. Mann of the Mayflower Home and the Rev. Newell E. Davis, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiated at the services.

Organist was Norman Goodbrod. Pallbearers were George Norris, Thomas Sanders, Gerald Phipps, Stanley Preston, Addison Jones and Charley Manly.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of James and Isabelle Turnbull Rule, Miss Rule was born July 4, 1879 at Naponset, Ill. She moved to Grinnell with her parents when she was a child and she received her education in the rural schools. She graduated from Grinnell high school in 1898.

Miss Rule was employed by the Stone Dry Goods Store and the Blair Dry Goods Store. She also operated her own dry goods store known as the Regnor and Rule Dry Goods Store.

For many years Miss Rule was the secretary for the United Church of Christ-Congregational where she was a member.

Survivors include her sisters — Margaret Connor and Katherine and Rosemond Rule, all of Grinnell, Mrs. Jane Hammond of Beaverdam, Wis., and Mrs. P. K. Osborn of Palo Alto, Calif., and her nieces and nephews.

Miss Rule was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers — George, John and Walter.

A memorial for Miss Rule has been established at the United Church of Christ-Congregational.
