Funeral Services For Mrs. O. P. Ryan Are Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Jane Ryan, wife of Orrie Ryan, who passed away Monday afternoon at her home, 432 Broad street, were held Wednesday afternoon at the James funeral home in charge of Rev. W. F. Overhulser. Music was provided by Mrs. Dolph Miller and Mrs. Roscoe Dempster. Fall bearers were L. D. Wilson, Raymond Norris, John Alertsen, Walter Hink, George Palmer and Chester Newcomer. Burial was in the Rector cemetery at Chelsea. O. P. Ryan

Emma Jane Graves, daughter of Herbert and Anna Groves, was born in Tama County Iowa, July 4, 1893, and passed away at her home in Grinnell, November 24, 1952, after a lingering illness. She was 59 years old. When she was 13 years old she joined the Methodist Church in Chelsea. She was a devoted Christian although poor health kept her from taking an active part in church work. When able, she attended the Methodist Church in Grinnell and was a member of the W. S. C. S. She lived her Christianity in her everyday life, providing a Christian home for her family and reflecting the same spirit on to her friends and neighbors through the years. She attended the rural schools of Tama County and received her formal education at Leander Clark college in Sheridan Township. On April 24, 1912, she was united in marriage to Orrie Phillip Ryan of Chelsea. Together they built a loving home and reared a fine family. Twelve children were born to the union, ten of whom survive. All have been at her bedside for the last month. Mrs. Ryan had a deep devotion for her family and her children remember her as counsellor, companion, teacher, and a loving self-sacrificing mother. She was blessed with a cheerful, happy disposition, a wonderful philosophy, and a sense of responsibility to her community. She was a good neighbor living by the Golden Rule and an inspiration to all who knew her. Despite years of failing health she lived a rich, full life. Surviving are her husband, Orrie, sons, Wesley of Osage, Iowa, Donald of Antioch, Calif., Merle of Mesa, Arizona; Eldon of Clear Lake, Iowa;
