Roscoe Salyers
Dies Sunday;
Rites Wednesday

Roscoe Salyers, 60, of 318 Broad St., Grinnell, passed away Sunday morning at a local hospital following an illness of the last two weeks.

Funeral services for Mr. Salyers will be held at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, at the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. B. H. Thorlakson, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Burial will be in Hazelwood cemetery. Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home.

Salyers was born July 29, 1901, at Unionville, Mo., the son of Isaac and Nora Smith Salyers. He received his early education in the Unionville public schools and on Jan. 28, 1928, was united in marriage with Lita Doke Harris at Montezuma.

To this union were born three sons—Carol of Grinnell, Darrell, with the U.S. Army at Ft. Sill, Okla., and Bill of Grinnell.

In addition to his widow Lita, at home in Grinnell, and his sons, Salyers is survived by three grandchildren—Carol Jr., Diana and Susan Salyers; and one half-sister, Mrs. Raymond Johnson of Chariton, Iowa.

Salyers was a resident of Grinnell for the last 34 years, except for two years when he lived in Missouri. He had been employed as a plumber at Grinnell College.
