Saturday Services Held At Malcom For Henry J. Sanderman

Funeral services for Henry J. Sanderman, 81, of Malcom, were held Saturday afternoon from the Malcom Methodist church.

Mr. Sanderman died suddenly Wednesday morning while doing chores at his farm near Malcom.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. Wilson Hyde, pastor of Union Park Methodist church in Des Moines, assisted by the Rev. James Robinson, pastor of the Malcom church. Music at the services was provided by Mrs. Waldo Johnson. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Heishman and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheets.

Pallbearers were Fred Beck, Raymond McClure, P. D. Varnum, George Baustian, Raymond Schilders, and Lyle Bauman. Honorary pallbearers were J. C. Deedrick, Henry Wichman, Lyle Goodwin, Lloyd Fry, Lester Baltisberger, and Clair Noel.

Interment was in the Melbourne, Iowa, cemetery with Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Sanderman is survived by his widow Zella, and a daughter, Allene Sanderman, both of Malcom; one brother; and several nieces and nephews.

The son of August and Caroline Kracht Sanderman, he was born Dec. 6, 1881, at Baxter. He received his education in the Baxter and Melbourne public schools.

In 1905, he was united in marriage with Zella Woods. To this union was born one daughter, Allene. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Sanderman moved from Melbourne to Owatonna, Minn., and 20 years ago moved to the farm north of Malcom.

He was a member of the Malcom Methodist church.
