

Mrs. D. K. Sargent, a long-time resident of Deep River township, died on February 19, aged 83 years, 5 months and 3 days. She came to Deep River on April 18, 1857, and has made her home there since that time with the exception of about twelve years spent in Washington, D. C. She is survived by four children, Will N. Sargent of Davenport, and Mrs. B. S. Hanawalt, S. A. Sargent and Mrs. Minnie Pierce, all of Deep River. Ten grandchildren also survive her. She has lived a long and blameless life and is deeply and sincerely mourned by her family and friends. 3-7-1919
