

Irma Clara Saunders Services Conducted

H-2 6(26)77
BUNKER HILL (Special). Memorial services were held on June 28 in the Community Friends Church for Irma Clara Saunders, 80, of Searsboro, who died June 26 in Grinnell General Hospital following a short illness.

The Rev. Delano Cunningham of Lynnville officiated at the services.

Mrs. Howard Macy was organist. Flower attendants were Betty Guthrie and Pauline Smith.

Pallbearers were Delbert Rayl, George Johnson, Donald Johnson, James Guthrie, Kenneth Smith and Floyd McGinn.

The daughter of Irvin and Junia Skillman Evans, Mrs. Saunders was born Feb. 1, 1891, in Poweshiek County.

On Nov. 11, 1911, she was married to Bert R. Saunders. To this union two daughters were born: Ruth Fleener, who preceded her in death, and Bertha Pietersma of Newton.

Mrs. Saunders attended the Community Friends Church in Searsboro.

Survivors include her daughter; six grandchildren; three great grandchildren; five sisters — Blanche Saunders of Salem, Ore., Neta Terpstra of Grinnell, Cecyle Gustafson of Marshalltown, Iona Kennedy of Galesburg, Ill., and Iola Trotter of Minneapolis; and a host of other relatives.

Mrs. Saunders was preceded in death by her husband in 1955, her parents, and her daughter.
