

MS Lucile Schilder

Lucile Schilder, 76, of Arlington, Va., formerly of Malcom, died Thursday, April 23, at Northern Virginia Doctors Hospital in Arlington.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Presbyterian Church in Malcom, with the Rev. Daniel Ogata officiating. Organist was Margaret Wheeler.

Pallbearers were George Axmeier, Herchel Griffith, Earl Gropper, Wayne Gropper, Jim Manatt and Sonny Schneekloth. Honorary bearers were Ronald Balusberger, George Baustian, Dick Emmert and Lavern Kelm.

Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom, with the Smith Funeral Home of Grinnell in charge of arrangements. Memorials may be made to the Malcom Presbyterian Church or the Clarendon United Methodist Church in Arlington.

The daughter of John and Ella Balusberger Schilder, she was born March 26, 1916, near Malcom. She grew up on the family farm and graduated from Malcom High School. She attended business college in Des Moines and later worked for that school. In 1941 she moved to Washington, D.C. and worked for the U.S. Coast Guard until her retirement.

She was a member of the Clarendon United Methodist Church, where she was involved in the young adult program, the Sunday school, the Crusaders Class and the United Methodist Women. She also was a member of the Wesleyan Service Guild and the Adult Home Department of the church.

There are no immediate survivors. She was preceded in death by two brothers, Raymond and Louis, and one sister, Eva Schilder.
