

H-R August 21, 1986
Gregory Schnell services held

Gregory Scott Schnell, 16, of Lynnville drowned Friday, Aug. 15, near the Wagaman Mill on the Skunk River at Lynnville. His body was recovered Sunday.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Lynnville Friends Church, with the Rev. Kenneth Santee officiating. Pallbearers were Rick Allbee, Gary Van Dyke, Shawn Vander Woordt, Chad Moomaw, Brent Van Ee and David Hober. Burial was in Woodland Cemetery, with the Harder Funeral Home of New Sharon in charge of arrangements.

The son of Dale and Roberta

Ogan Schnell, he was born on Jan. 5, 1970, at Grinnell. He attended Lynnville-Sully schools and was a member of the Lynnville-Sully High School class of 1988.

He attended Sunday School and Youth Fellowship at the Lynnville Friends Church and had worked with a corn-detasseling crew.

Survivors include his parents; two brothers Joel and Jeremy; and his grandparents, Lois Ogan of Grinnell and Robert and Gertrude Schnell of Sully.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Ralph Ogan Jr.

---